

0 Connecticut Citizen Election Audit

0 Without our volunteers, only a few officials would know how post-election audits are conducted

Volunteer Citizen Audit Observer Code of Conduct

1. Observers will maintain strict impartiality in the conduct of their duties and will, at no time, during the audit, publicly express or exhibit any bias or preference in relation to parties, candidates, or with reference to any issues in contention in the election process. Observers will behave in a non-partisan manner at all times.
2. Observers will undertake their duties in an unobtrusive manner and will not interfere in the electoral process.
3. Observers will remain on duty throughout the post-election audit.
4. Observers will base all conclusions on their personal observations or on clear and convincing facts or evidence. Please note the source of any evidence not witnessed personally by the observer.
5. Observers will comply with all State laws and regulations.
6. Observers will exhibit the highest levels of personal discretion and professional behavior.
7. Observers will return phone calls and e-mails within 24 hours confirming scheduling requests.
8. Observers will allow plenty of time in order to arrive before the scheduled time for the audit.
9. Observers understand that they will not be assigned to their own city/town.
10. Observers understand that only designated individuals can speak for the Citizen Audit. Observers will not make any comments to the media, and will refer all media inquiries to the Connecticut Citizen Election Audit.
